

Term Scholarships

CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield Project RN Scholarship

Established in 2007 to support a master's degree student who will teach in a nursing school in Maryland, Virginia, or Washington, DC.

The Joanne and William Conway Endowed Nursing Scholarship Fund

Established in 2013 by Joanne & William Conway to facilitate the expansion of pre-licensure nursing students to provide partial and/or full scholarships to nursing students enrolled in JHU Nursing who have demonstrated financial need and satisfy eligibility requirements as may be determined by JHUSON.

Robert M. Heyssel, M.D. Scholarship Fund

Robert M. Heyssel, MD, was president of Johns Hopkins Hospital from 1972 to 1992. Because of his longtime support of nursing here, and because he was instrumental in re-establishing the School of Nursing, Hospital nursing directors and School of Nursing faculty launched this fund in his honor.

Lynn V. Jackson Scholarship Fund

The fund is being established in memory of Mrs. Lynne Jackson, '60. This named fund will be for nursing students' general financial needs.

The Jonas Nurse Leaders and Veterans' Healthcare Scholars Program

Funded through the generosity of the Barbara and Donald Jonas Family Fund, the Jonas Center for Nursing Excellence's mission is to improve healthcare through nursing. These scholarships are awarded to DNP and PhD students who will serve as nurse leaders to advance scholarship, leadership and innovation, and to collaborate on initiatives with other leaders in the nursing field. Additional scholarship funds are provided to DNP and PhD students whose research focuses on the needs of military veterans.

H. P. Nunn Family Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 1997 by Mr. Henry Phillip Nunn Sr., in honor of his family: Catherine L. Nunn, Susan H. Nunn, and H. P. Nunn Jr. The fund also honors the memory of Superintendent Anna D. Wolf and Dr. Helen Taussig. It was his desire "that the recipient know that in years long past a family was interested enough to share some of their savings so that future students would receive scholarship assistance."

Mildred West Rogers Scholarship

In 2005 family members of Mildred West Rogers '67 established a scholarship to help financially needy students as an ideal way to honor her dedication to nursing and to the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing. As an active member of the Alumni Association, Mildred has participated in many alumni activities including raising funds for a class scholarship by donating a quilt she made from old nursing uniforms. She donated a second quilt depicting nursing uniforms in various decades that is on display in the School of Nursing.

The Elaine Neely Schelle Scholarship

Established in 2009 to support one or more undergraduate students at the Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing, who are in need of financial assistance.

Sandra L. Montague Winfield Scholarship Fund

Recognizing the impact of scholarship funds, Sandra Winfield, RN BSN has generously provided this scholarship to Hopkins nursing students who are pursuing a career in the nursing profession. A Class of 1970 graduate, Sandra has chosen to give back to Hopkins for the opportunity that was afforded to her when she was training to become a nurse.

The Women's Board of Johns Hopkins Hospital Scholarship

In recognition of the important role the school plays in contributing to excellent patient care at Johns Hopkins Hospital, the Women's Board has generously supported the School of Nursing since 1984. Currently, the board provides annual scholarship support for students enrolled in the accelerated program.
