

MEGAN E. MCCLOWRY, DNP, BSN, RN

❖ mmcclow1@jh.edu

SUMMARY

Family Nurse Practitioner student at Johns Hopkins University expecting to graduate in May 2020 with over 900 clinical hours. Over seven years of RN experience in the NICU and in a rural Ugandan clinic. Proven ability to provide compassionate, cross-cultural care across the lifespan. Aims to promote wellness and provide holistic healthcare as a family nurse practitioner in a community setting.

EDUCATION

Doctorate of Nursing Practice, Family Nurse Practitioner May 2020
Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, Baltimore, Maryland

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Minor in Biology May 2010
Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana

Certificate in Religious Studies December 2015
Queen of Apostles Philosophy Center, Jinja, Uganda

NURSE PRACTITIONER PROGRAM CLINICALS

Family Primary Care Clinical Rotation 380 hours
Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, MD
Total Health Care- Saratoga Street Clinic, Baltimore, MD

- Collaborated with an interdisciplinary healthcare team of physicians, nurse practitioners, pharmacists, and social workers in delivering care to low resource and uninsured clients upon discharge from the hospital
- Provided wound care, suture removal, and treatment for opioid addictions
- Connected low resource individuals to affordable health care and community resources
- Performed physical assessments, ordered and interpreted diagnostic testing, and evaluated and managed acute and chronic conditions

Adolescent Primary Care Clinical Rotation 172 hours
St. John's College Health Center, Annapolis, MD

- Communicated and coordinated patient care with students and their family members
- Optimized the health of the student population, promoted smoking cessation, and responded to acute and chronic health concerns including musculoskeletal injuries, mental health concerns, and upper respiratory illnesses
- Collaborated with psychiatrists and counselors in delivering patient centered holistic care

Women's Health Clinical Rotation 126 hours
Johns Hopkins Hospital- OB/GYN, Baltimore, MD

- Performed pap smears, well woman and pelvic exams, birth control counseling, IUD insertions, and STI testing to the female population
- Conducted obstetric assessments and managed care for expectant mothers
- Provided comprehensive gynecological counseling on pre/postpartum, menopausal, and menstrual concerns

Pediatric Primary Care Clinical Rotation 173 hours
Village Pediatrics, Baltimore, MD

Johns Hopkins Hospital- Bayview Nursery, Baltimore, MD

- Provided well child visits, sick visits, sports physicals, immunization counseling, asthma management, and acute and chronic care for the pediatric population
- Performed history and physical assessments, and collaborated with pediatric nurse practitioners and physicians to create management plans
- Educated and supported new parents regarding breastfeeding, postpartum depression, growth and development, anticipatory guidance and health promotion

Public Health Clinical Rotation
Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, MD

- Triaged, referred, and screened employees for COVID-19 50 hours

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Registered Nurse- Neonatal Intensive Care Unit

June 2017- August 2018

St. Alexius Medical Center, Hoffman Estates, IL

- ♦ Assessed and treated critically ill newborns while updating patient status via two computer systems
- ♦ Collaborated with physicians, respiratory therapists, nutritionists, physical therapists, social workers, pharmacists, and fellow nurses to deliver comprehensive patient centered care to each neonate
- ♦ Responded to obstetric emergencies and deliveries
- ♦ Educated and supported parents and family members of patients

Level II Registered Nurse- Neonatal Intensive Care Unit

September 2010- September 2013

Rush University Medical Center, Chicago, Illinois

- ♦ Provided highly skilled direct patient care for critically ill newborns in a level three MAGNET certified NICU
- ♦ Responded to obstetric emergencies and deliveries
- ♦ Assisted in procedures such as intubations, chest tube insertions, PICC placements, and bedside operations
- ♦ Provided care for patients in the pediatric and pediatric intensive care units when needed
- ♦ Conducted audits on the unit to assure that safety protocols were being met to minimize the risk of infection

Patient Care Manager

May 2008 – August 2008

Sunrise Assisted Living, Naperville, Illinois

- ♦ Managed direct patient care for over fifteen residents, assisted with dining and laundry services, and created and led social events
- ♦ Assisted with daily needs including bathing, feeding, personal hygiene, comforting, and conversing with residents and their families while encouraging independence and preserving their dignity

LICENSURE AND SKILLS

- ♦ Registered Nurse, License Number R22xxxx, Maryland Board of Nursing September 2017-present
- ♦ Registered Nurse, License Number 04138xxxx, Illinois Board of Nursing June 2010-present
- ♦ BLS for Health Care Providers Valid through September 2020
- ♦ Proficient in Epic and Cerner

PUBLICATIONS

McClowry, M. (2014). Do not be afraid. In D. Jacobson., It's a God thing: When Miracles Happen to Everyday People (p. 193-197). Nashville, TN: W Publishing

PROFESSIONAL INVOLVEMENT

- ♦ Advanced Nursing Education Workforce Scholar, 2019-Present
- ♦ Johns Hopkins Graduate Specialty Student Organization, Publicity Affairs Officer, 2019-Present
- ♦ Member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, 2020- Present
- ♦ HRSA National Health Service Corp, August 2017-Present
- ♦ Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing, 2010
- ♦ Kappa Gama Phi National Catholic Honor Society, 2010

GLOBAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Registered Nurse

June 2016- November 2016

Sister Maura Brannick Health Center, South Bend, IN

- ♦ Admitted and monitored vital signs of medically underserved patients including uninsured patients, immigrants, and refugees
- ♦ Assisted physicians with physical assessments, EKG testing, PAP smears, and minor surgical procedures
- ♦ Instructed patients in the use of the exercise facility while promoting their well-being and physical health
- ♦ Handled initial inquiries and assisted patients of diverse backgrounds in completing health applications

Registered Nurse

September 2013- December 2015; Spring 2009

Uganda Medical Mission, Kyarusenzi, Uganda

- ♦ Provided direct patient care across the lifespan for patients with acute and chronic illnesses, malaria, and HIV
- ♦ Monitored flow and stock of medication while collaborating with governmental and international organizations
- ♦ Assessed HIV/AIDS patients, dispensed ARV's, and participated in home field visits of HIV+ individuals
- ♦ Immunized over a hundred babies each week and provided prenatal care during village outreaches
- ♦ Led staff trainings on common medical issues and Neonatal Resuscitation
- ♦ Organized sporting events and activities for staff to improved morale and foster teamwork
- ♦ Directed the first cross country race for the community garnering over $1,000 for the health clinic
- ♦ Assisted in creating the clinic's website to raise awareness and solicit donations