

Workshop

Social Justice and Critical Consciousness in Health Professionals

Join us for an engaging one-hour session designed to cultivate critical consciousness in healthcare by examining positionality, systemic inequities, and ethical considerations in health professions. Through discussions, case studies, and role-play, participants will explore how identity shapes healthcare experiences and how to address biases and structural barriers.

Pizza and refreshments served

Registration required

Open to students, faculty, and staff
from BSPH - SON - SOM

For more information visit
SOURCE.jhu.edu/VolWeek

Tue, April 22

12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

BSPH W3008

